Folio 250, in the Office of the Register of Wills for Frederick County, which gives all of her eleven children equal shares of her interest in the Sarah S. Stouter property (Mary Stouter died testate July 18, 1962).

F. Felix Stouter died intestate and was survived by his wife, Mary (who was previously married to Martin A. Stouter) and seven children who have an interest in this real property. Mary's statutory onethird (1/3) interest was devised to her surviving children of this marriage and herefirst marriage in eleven equal shares. Therefore, the seven children of Felix and Mary are entitled to a proportionate share of Felix's two-thirds (2/3) intestate interest of Sarah S. Stouter's property and an additional share of Mary's dower interest in accordance with the terms of her Will as hereinbefore set out at Paragraph "7-C".
